Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept

Officiant and People together,

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Officiant says

Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

The Invitatory and Psalter (BCP, p. 80)

Lord, open our lips. And our mouth shall proclaim your praise.

Officiant and People

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen. Alleluia!

Alleluia! The Lord is risen indeed: Come let us adore Him. Alleluia!

Invitatory

♩ S 49 Pascha Nostrum

J. Hindle

- 1 Alleluia, alleluia. *
Alleluia, alleluia.
- 2 Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us; *
therefore let us keep the feast,
- 3 Not with the old leaven, the leaven of malice and evil, *
but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.
- 4 Alleluia, alleluia. *
Alleluia, alleluia.
- 5 Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; *
death no longer has dominion over him.
- 6 The death that he died, he died to sin, once for all; *
but the life he lives, he lives to God.
- 7 So also consider yourselves dead to sin, *
and alive to God in Jesus Christ our Lord.
- 8 Alleluia, alleluia. *
Alleluia, alleluia.
- 9 Christ has been raised from the dead, *
the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.
- 10 For since by a man came death, *
by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead.
- 11 For as in Adam all die, *
so also in Christ shall all be made alive.
- 12 Alleluia, alleluia. *
Alleluia, alleluia.

(Gloria Patri may be added)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, *
and to the Holy Spirit:

As it was in the beginning, is now, *
and will be forever. Amen.

Alleluia, alleluia. *
Alleluia, alleluia.

The Psalm: 66:7-18

Jubilate Deo

7. Bless our God, you peoples; *
make the voice of his praise to be heard;
8. Who holds our souls in life, *
and will not allow our feet to slip.
9. For you, O God, have proved us; *
you have tried us just as silver is tried.
10. You brought us into the snare; *
you laid heavy burdens upon our backs.
11. You let enemies ride over our heads; we went through fire and water; *
but you brought us out into a place of refreshment.
12. I will enter your house with burnt-offerings and will pay you my vows, * which I promised with my lips and spoke with my mouth when I was in trouble.
13. I will offer you sacrifices of fat beasts with the smoke of rams; *
I will give you oxen and goats.
14. Come and listen, all you who fear God, *
and I will tell you what he has done for me.
15. I called out to him with my mouth, *
and his praise was on my tongue.
16. If I had found evil in my heart, *
the Lord would not have heard me;
17. But in truth God has heard me; *
he has attended to the voice of my prayer.
18. Blessed be God, who has not rejected my prayer, *
nor withheld his love from me.

Reader and People together

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Word of God (BCP, p. 84)

The First Reading

A reading from the Book of Acts.

Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said, "Athenians, I see how extremely religious you are in every way. For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription, 'To an unknown god.' What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you. The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands, nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things. From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him—though indeed he is not far from each one of us. For 'In him we live and move and have our being'; as even some of your own poets have said,

'For we too are his offspring.'

Since we are God's offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of mortals. While God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will have the world judged in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead."

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Unison or harmony

1 As those of old their first fruits brought of vine-yard, flock, and *2 A world in need now sum-mons us to la-bor, love, and 3 With grat-i-tude and hum-ble trust we bring our best to field to God, the giv-er of all good, the give; to make our life an of-fer-ing to thee to serve thy cause and share thy love with source of bount-eous yield; so we to-day our God that all may live; the Church of Christ is all hu-man-i-ty. O thou who gav-est first fruits bring, the wealth of this good land, of call-ing us to make the dream come true: a us thy-self in Je-sus Christ thy Son, help farm and mar-ket, shop and home, of mind, and heart, and hand.

 world re-deemed by Christ-like love; all life in Christ made new.
 us to give our-selves each day un-til life's work is done.

The Second Reading

A reading from the First Letter of Peter.

Now who will harm you if you are eager to do what is good? But even if you do suffer for doing what is right, you are blessed. Do not fear what they fear, and do not be intimidated, but in your hearts sanctify Christ as Lord. Always be ready to make your defense to anyone who demands from you an accounting for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and reverence. Keep your conscience clear, so that, when you are maligned, those who abuse you for your good conduct in Christ may be put to shame. For it is better to suffer for doing good, if suffering should be God's will, than to suffer for doing evil. For Christ also suffered for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, in order to bring you to God. He was put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit, in which also he went and made a proclamation to the spirits in prison, who in former times did not obey, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah, during the building of the ark, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were saved through water. And baptism, which this prefigured, now saves you-- not as a removal of dirt from the body, but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers made subject to him.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Gospel Lesson

A reading from the Gospel of John.

Jesus said, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

"I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live. On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them."

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Homily

The Reverend Lauren T. McLeavey

The Apostles' Creed

Officiant and People together, all standing

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth;
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

The Lay Eucharistic Ministers compose and lead our intercessory prayers on behalf of us all, the people of God. After each prayer the leader will say 'Lord in your mercy' to which we all respond 'Hear our Prayer'.

The Officiant will then say a concluding prayer, to which we all respond 'Amen'.

For Our Prayers

For those who have requested our prayers, and who seek and have confidence for healing, solace, and rest in you, especially:
Hank, Peter, Bob, Jo, Nina, Shirlee, Mark, Reynaldo, Sue, Charles, Carolina, Pam, Kyle, MB, Carol, Marian, Clay, Kai, Frank, Irene, Bob, Alyssa, Tessie, and Libby.

For all those who have died. May they rest in peace.

Birthday Prayer

Watch over those who are celebrating their birthdays, O Lord, as their days increase; bless and guide them wherever they may be. Strengthen them when they stand; comfort them when discouraged or sorrowful; raise them up if they fall; and in their hearts may your peace which passes understanding abide all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Anniversary Prayer

May God bless you and grant you joy. May He deepen your love for each other. May He bless you in your family and friends, and lead you to unending happiness in Heaven. May Almighty God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, bless us all, and keep us in His love for ever and ever. Amen.

The Collects

The Collect of the Day

O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Collect for Guidance

Heavenly Father, in you we live and move and have our being: We humbly pray you so to guide and govern us by your Holy Spirit, that in all the cares and occupations of our life we may not forget you, but may remember that we are ever walking in your sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for Mission

Lord Jesus Christ, you stretched out your arms of love on the hard wood of the cross that everyone might come within the reach of your saving embrace: So clothe us in your Spirit that we, reaching forth our hands in love, may bring those who do not know you to the knowledge and love of you; for the honor of your Name. Amen.

The General Thanksgiving

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we your unworthy servants give you humble thanks for all your goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all whom you have made. We bless you for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all for your immeasurable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we pray, give us such an awareness of your mercies, that with truly thankful hearts we may show forth your praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up our selves to your service, and by walking before you in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory throughout all ages. Amen.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.

The Final Blessing

The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great shepherd of the sheep, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is pleasing in his sight; and the blessing of God almighty, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you, now and always. ## EPISCOPAL SERVICE CORPS TO HOSE ONLINE OPEN HOUSE—MAY 19, 2020

Young adults between 21 and 32 considering a #ServiceYear through Episcopal Service Corps are invited to join ESC in an online Open House: Tuesday, May 19 at 8:00pm Eastern / 7:00pm Central / 6:00pm Mountain / 5:00pm Pacific.

“Through Episcopal Service Corps, young adults have an opportunity to bring hope, healing, and help to their local communities. Especially in this time of COVID-19, the ministry of Corps members over the next year will be more vital than ever,” said Wendy Johnson, ESC Coordinator. “That being said, ESC is so much more than an 11-month deep dive into service work. It is time that a young adult sets aside to develop the intentional and reflective practices that will enable a lifetime of spiritual growth, community orientation, and leadership.”

ESC’s Open House will be hosted on the Zoom platform and feature local program directors and current corps members who will discuss their programs and experiences. During the video call, there will be an opportunity for potential applicants to ask questions about what it is like to live in intentional community and serve through ESC, especially as we continue to live with the COVID-19 pandemic.

HOSPICE & END-OF-LIFE DOULA VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Parker Jewish Institute’s Comprehensive Community Hospice in New Hyde Park has been providing highly specialized care to terminally ill patients since 1997 and is looking for volunteers of all ages and backgrounds to enhance the quality of life and help reduce the burden for family caregivers by providing support, assistance, in patient’s homes, in nursing homes, and assisted living facilities. Hospice volunteers can commit to as little or as much time as they wish. Some volunteers provide several hours of service each week while others commit to a few hours each month. Serving as valued members of the hospice team, for just a few hours of your time you can make a significant impact on the lives of patients and their loved ones.

Volunteer opportunities include: Doulas, bereavement/grief, patient friendly visits, legacy projects, administrative support, community education, and help recruiting other volunteers. For detailed information about what these opportunities entail, please visit <https://parkerinstitute.org/hospice-volunteer-program/>

While volunteering at the Institute is restricted amid the COVID-19 emergency, they are still looking for volunteers and are offering interviews and training through virtual platforms.

If you're interested in learning more about volunteering for the Hospice program, or if you want to orient yourself with the Institute’s guidelines, please email the Hospice Program's Volunteer Doula Coordinator at volunteer-nerken@parkerinstitute.org or call 718-289-2100 x 4116.
